

¶ By the King.

Eing informed, That many Officers of Our Armie, as well Foot, and Horse, as of Our Garisons, are absent from their severall charges to Our great disservice, and their owne shame and dishonour, We do hereby ordaine, injoyne, and expressly command all Chieks, Captaines and Officers of horse and foot, as well those of Our Armie, as of Our Garisons, whose regiments, troopes and companies are marched or ready to march, to depart out of these Our Cities of London, Westminster and other parts, within eight and forty houres after the publishing hereof, and to repaire to their severall Charges with all possible diligence: w<sup>ch</sup> of they are to take notice and conformance themselves accordingly upon paine of being cashiered and for ever declared unworthy of Our service, and incurring Our highest indignation and displeasure.

Given at Our Palace of Westminster, this fourteenth day of Iune, in the sixteenth yeer of Our Reign.

God save the King.
